

ISEKI-Food Association: NATIONAL REPRESENTATIVE (NR)

NATIONAL REPRESENTATIVES and their deputies have to be member of the ISEKI-Food Association

The NATIONAL REPRESENTATIVES and their deputies should have the following RESPONSIBILITIES inter alia:

- to promote the aims and activities of the ISEKI-Food Association in their country
- to be the official contact person between the ISEKI-Food Association and national bodies, including universities, research organisation/institutions, associations, official and private bodies (companies, enterprises, foundations, cooperatives) and all interested scientists in their country
- to publicise the activities and working results of the ISEKI-Food Association in their country (information about projects, newsletter, calendar of events etc.)
- to promote the participation of the ISEKI-Food Association in projects of interest in their country
- to recruit new members for the ISEKI-Food Association
- to manage and keep updated the country specific part of the web site and dissemination materials
- to be prepared to stand for a 3 year term (with the possibility of re-election)
- to work mainly on an honorary basis

The NATIONAL REPRESENTATIVES and their deputies should have the following RIGHTS inter alia:

- to act as the official representative of the ISEKI-Food Association in their country and represent it in the General Assembly
- to participate in the nomination process of the ISEKI-Food Association officials (President, Vice-president, Board members etc.)
- to participate in defining the policies and programmes of the ISEKI-Food Association through proposals to the Board (General Assembly)
- to select and propose members for the ISEKI-Food Association-Academy to the Board (General Assembly)
- to be assisted in organising meetings or events under the auspices of the ISEKI-Food Association
- after each 3 year term, the Association will determine what benefits will be given to the NR in recognition of their work